Best Workplaces for CommutersSM Welcome and Orientation Call

Topic: Best Workplaces for Commuters 101

Congratulations on your designation as one of the Best Workplaces for Commuters! The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the Best Workplaces for Commuters Team applaud your decision to participate in this program, joining employers nationwide who recognize the value of providing commuter benefits.

This Welcome and Orientation Call will provide you more information about the resources available to your organization as one of the Best Workplaces for Commuters, and will also be a forum in which you can interact with other new members. The BWC Team will review various tools and resources on the BWC Web site, including:

- Using the Best Workplaces for Commuters logo & leveraging the designation
- Resources to help manage and enhance your commuter benefits program
- Employer reporting
- 2006 Race to Excellence

We encourage you to join us to learn more about the program! If you are unable to make this call but would like to participate at a later date, please let us know by responding to this e-mail.

Welcome Aboard!

About the Welcome and Orientation Call

This Welcome and Orientation Call is designed to provide information about BWC tools and resources to those new to the program. Moderated by EPA staff, the BWC Team encourages employers to use the call to share ideas and best practices, and to gather information from others.

Best Workplaces for Commuters is a voluntary partnership between U.S. EPA and employers to promote employer-provided commuter benefits that enhance quality of life by reducing air pollution, traffic congestion, stress, taxes, and transportation costs.

Contact us at 1-888-856-3131 or bwc@epa.gov for more information.

You are receiving this invitation because you have been designated as one of the Best Workplaces for Commuters. Please let us know if there is someone at your organization you would like added to our mailing list by contacting us at bwc@epa.gov.
